A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE.

FOLLOWING the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial, in which they are taking part, the President and Mrs. Harding will receive the members of the committee of the Sulgrave Institution, who are presenting to the American Government a painting of the "Signing of the Treaty of Ghent." The "audience" is set for 5 o'clock, and tea will be served.

The painting, which is by Sir A. Forester, will be hung in the National Art Gallery, and the official presentation took place last night. The British ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes, Chief Justice Taft, Judge Alton B. Parker, members of the Cabinet, and other distinguished men and women were present. Chief Justice Taft and Judge Parker made addresses.

A miniature of President Harding has just been completed by Miss Edith Hindela Whitehead, a talented young artist, who has been spending the winter in Washington, and will be on exhibition at Shaw & Brown's beginning tomorrow. President Harding has autographed the miniature, for which he gave several sittings, and has exclaimed it to the artist as his favorite portrait.

Miss Whitehead is an associate member of the Royal Miniature Society of London, and is well known in New York and in London. She is leaving Washington today for New York, and expects to go to Newport for the summer. Among the most charming examples of her work is a miniature of her cousin, Countess Tolstol, which has been exhibited with great success.

THE Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of Admiral Sir William Pakenham, commander of the North Atlantic and West Indies Station, who is in Washington aboard his flagship, Raleigh, and have invited a distinguished company of guests to meet him.

Another delightful event on the calendar tonight, at which the Raleigh's officers will be the bright particular stars, is Mrs. J. Borden Harriman's supper dance. She has invited some twenty-five of the British officers to be her guests and will have a number of pretty girls to meet them. Supper will be served in the garden, an orchestra playing in doors for the dancing.

Mrs. Harriman was also hostess at luncheon today when she entertained Admiral Pakenham and his personal staff. There were twelve in the company which went afterward to the dedication ceremonies at the Lincoln Memorial.

Mrs. Henry Getty Chilton, wife

MISS M. G. ANDREWS, who has recently come to Washington and has taken an apartment at the Hadleigh.

of the Counselor of the British embassy, who had proposed to give a reception this afternoon for Admiral Pakenham and the officers of the Raleigh, gave up this hospitality on account of the indisposition of one of her small daughters. A dinner planned for Sunday, June 4, has also been cancelled.

Miss Mildred Bromwell had a small company at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, having some of the officers of the Raleigh among her guests.

The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge are attending the dedication ceremonies at the Lincoln Memorial this afternoon, the Vice President heading the Senate which is attending in a body.

Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge spent the week-end with Senator and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper at their country home at Devon, Pa., taking in the Devon Horse Show on Saturday afternoon and returning to Washington on Sunday evening.

Diplomat Is Host At Luncheon Party.

The Argentine Ambassador, Dr. Tomas A. Le Breton, entertained a few guests at luncheon yesterday.

The Italian Ambassador, Senator Ricci, will return tomorrow, after a two months' tour of the United States. Mr. Geisser Celestia, secretary of the embassy, went to New York yesterday to meet him.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes were the guests of honor of the Minister of Costa Rica and Mme. Beeche, who entertained a distinguished company at the Willard. The guests included the Spanish Ambassador and Mme de Riano, the Peruvian Ambassador and Mme. Pezet, the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Wallace and Miss Mary Wallace, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Fall, the Minister of Venezuela, Senor Dominici; the Minister of Ecuador, Senor Elizalde; the Minister of Honduras and Miss Lopez, the Minister of Nicaragua and Mme. Chamorro, Mrs. Godoy, Dr. L. S. Rome, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler P. Anderson, Fred K. Nelson, Dr. Dana G. Munro and Mrs. Munro and Gonzalo Beeche, attaché of the legation of Costa Rica.

Czechoslovak Minister to Sail for Home.

The minister of Czechoslovakia, Dr. Bedrich Stepanek, and his sister, Miss Anne Stepankova, will sail tomorrow from New York for Prague. They will remain abroad until the latter part of June, returning to the United States about that time.

Miss Helen Cannon and her niece, Miss Helen Le Seure, will spend part of the summer abroad if Congress adjourns in time to permit the trip. In case their European trip is cancelled they will go after the adjournment of Congress to the North Shore to remain until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Potter Russell, of New York, who have been abroad since March, will land in New York tomorrow and will go to their summer home at Barnardville, N. J. Their small son and daughter, who were with Mrs. Russell's mother, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, in Washington during their absence, are now at Barnardville to await their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., who have had an apartment in Washington the past winter, have taken the Jesse L. Livermore country estate at Great Neck, N. Y., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Aiden A. Thorndike, of Boston, and their daughter, who arrived by motor yesterday, are at the Shoreham.

Notables Here for Memorial Dedication.

Among the notables who have come to Washington to attend the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial are the men whose genius has gone into its making. The architect, Henry Bacon, and Mrs. Bacon are staying at the Powhatan Hotel, accompanied by Francis Bacon and Mrs. F. H. Bacon. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French and Mr. and Mrs. Jules Guerin are also at the Powhatan. Mr. French is the sculptor of the heroic figure of Lincoln which is enshrined in the memorial, and Mr. Guerin did the beautiful mural decorations.

Capt. Piero Civalieri, naval attaché of the Italian embassy, is in New York for a short visit and is at the Plaza Hotel.

Brig. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, superintendent of the Military Academy, and Mrs. MacArthur were among the notables who attended the Army and Navy baseball game at Annapolis yesterday. They made a brief visit in Washington en route and were entertained at dinner on Sunday evening by General MacArthur's mother, Mrs. Arthur MacArthur, at the Shoreham.

Mme. Prochnik, wife of the charge d'affaires of the Austrian legation, entertained a company of eighteen at bridge yesterday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. J. Edward Graham, of Cleveland, who is the guest of Mrs. Robert F. MacKenzie. Addition guests joined the party for tea.

Congressman and Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, who have been spending the winter at the Willard, left yesterday for New York, where they will spend part of the summer, going to California later.

Gen. and Mrs. Tasker A. Bliss will be at home Saturday afternoon at Soldiers' Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kite have leased the Hedges, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Judson C. Welliver, near Rockville, and will take possession about the middle of June. Mrs. Welliver and the children will spend the summer in the West.

Mrs. Robert F. MacKenzie will be hostess at dinner this evening in compliment to her guest, Mrs. Edward Graham.

Judge and Mrs. Daniel T. Wright have with them at their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel their daughter, Mrs. Church, who recently returned from an extended stay in Asheville, N. C. Mrs. Wright is planning to spend part of the summer at White Sulphur Springs but Mrs. Church expects to stay at the Wardman apartment most of the summer.

Daniel T. Wright, third son of Judge and Mrs. Wright, will sail June 17, for Europe where he will remain until the end of September.

Mrs. James Ponder Burion has as her guest, her niece, Miss Virginia Weakley, of St. Joseph, Mo.

The exhibition of paintings and sketches by the late James Henry Moser, at the residence of Mrs. Anna G. Howland, 2412 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, will be continued during the present week. A number of the larger pictures, including some very rare water colors, are shown, besides sketches in water color and pencil at very reasonable prices. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. A. A. Williamson, of Winston Salem, N. C., arrived yesterday to visit her niece, Mrs. Katie M. Green, of 1527 Pennsylvania avenue S. E.

the co-operation of Maj. Gen. John A. Leguene, commander of the Marine Corps, the film will be shown at the Marine Barracks and the evening of June 12 has been selected because a moon is promised. The Marine Band will play the incidental music and give the program of dance music following the picture.

The number of tickets is limited and, since official regulations prevent their being sold at the gate, must be secured before the performance. The film was sponsored through the courtesy of Jack F. Connolly, of the Metro Picture Corporation and this will be its first presentation in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Shuford, of Hickory, N. C., are spending a few days at Wardman Park Hotel. They will entertain at dinner at Wardman Park Hotel this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Richardson have returned to their Connecticut avenue home after an absence of ten days in St. Louis, where they attended a medical convention.

Maurice Francis Egan, newly elected president of the International Association of Arts and Letters, was formally installed in office at a meeting of the society yesterday afternoon at the new clubhouse, 1711 Street.

Mrs. Florence Jackson Stoddard, retiring president of the association, introduced the new officers. Among the members and guests present was the ambassador of Belgium, Baron de Brierre; the ambassador of Peru, Alfonso Pezet; the ambassador of Brazil, Dr. de Alencar; the minister of Venezuela, Dr. Domini; the minister of Ecuador, Dr. Elizalde; the minister of Uruguay, Dr. Varas; the minister of Chile, Dr. Barros; the minister of Bolivia, Dr. Calderon; Dr. and Mme. Manuel de Oliveira Lima and Michael Kappovich; Dr. P. F. Lendino, dean of the University School of Letters; George S. Duncan, president of the Art and Archaeology League; D. Bennett, of the Union of East and West; H. C. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Chace, Mrs. Blair Bannister, Mrs. Emily W. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallis, Professor Leonard Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Murphy, Mrs. Benjamin Smith, Mrs. Henry Dimock, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ridgway, Mrs. E. Lock Scott, D. Panagou, Miss Margaret Clark, Mrs. de Missever, Dr. Loy McAfee, Prof. and Mrs. King-Smith, Mrs. Stanwood Cobb, Mrs. A. S. Hamilton, Mrs. M. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Irish, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perkins, Miss Dick Root, Mrs. A. S. Hamilton and Mrs. M. V. Smith.

The marriage of Miss Julia Belrose, daughter of the late Louis Belrose, of this city, to Joseph Baker, of New York, took place in Greenwich, Conn., on Sunday, May 28. Announcement of the marriage came as a great surprise to friends of the couple here and abroad as no previous word of their engagement had leaked out. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace and was witnessed by Mr. Baker's only daughter, Miss Pauline Chapin Bourne. Miss Bourne arrived last Friday on the Rochambeau after passing the winter and spring abroad. This is Mr. Bourne's second marriage. His former wife, who was Miss Julia Chapin, a daughter of Chester Chapin, first became the wife of the Marquis de la Tour du Villard, from whom she secured a divorce in 1897. About two years after that she was married to Mr. Bourne, from whom she secured a divorce about eighteen months ago. A year ago last winter Mrs. Bourne was married in Greenwich to Benoit Lockwood, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood now are living in Quito, Ecuador.

Mrs. Bourne, the bride of last Sunday, is quite young and about the age of her husband's daughter, who was introduced to society two years ago. She is the daughter of the late Louis Belrose and of Mrs. Belrose, of Washington, D. C. Her brother, Louis Belrose, Jr., for years was attached to the American consulate in Cairo, Egypt. Mrs. Bourne has passed her life between Washington and Paris. She is an accomplished musician.

Mr. Bourne comes of a family for years identified with New York and Staten Island and has lived much in France. During the war he was for two years a liaison officer in France, serving as captain of infantry. For services rendered to France he was awarded by the French government the Legion d'Honneur and also received citations from General Pershing. After his former wife was married to Mr. Lockwood his daughter, Miss Pauline Bourne, lived with her father. Mr. and Mrs. Bourne expect to sail for Europe shortly.

Mrs. James J. Sheehy announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Nann Clay Sheehy, to John Berchman Shanahan, of Omaha, Neb.

The marriage will be quietly solemnized on Wednesday morning, May 31, at St. Matthew's Church.

Unusual interest surrounded the annual election of officers of the League of American Pen Women, held last night at its headquarters, 1722 H street northwest.

Theodore Tiller was elected president; Mrs. Forrestine C. Hooker, second vice president; Miss Natalie Sumner Lincoln, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Meek Atkeson, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. Aaron D. Newman, recording secretary; Mrs. Ella O. Howard, treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy de Muth Watson, auditor; Mrs. Rebecca Dial, daughter of Senator Dial of South Carolina, librarian; and Mrs. Kate Marcia Forbes, historian.
